COMMUNICATION

The Laurentian Pilotage Authority (LPA) appoints an Interim Senior Director of operations.

Please take note that, as of October 24, 2016, Sylvia Masson is no longer part of the LPA organization.

We are pleased to announce that Mr. Sylvain Lachance will serve as Interim Senior Director of Operations until we have completed the recruitment process to find a permanent replacement for this position.

Mr. Lachance has extensive experience working with the shipping industry. He has held numerous positions within the Canadian Coast Guard and the Marine Safety and Security group at Transport Canada, and holds an MBA degree.

Mr. Lachance has over 40 years of experience in the marine industry and previously served as Transport Canada's Acting Director General of Marine Safety and Security, in Ottawa.
